What is your job?

Conferences like these make my head spin

Stuff gets in the way of my team being higher performing.

How people work (the day-to-day thoughts, emotions, activities) matters just as much as *what people work on (strategy, plans, tactics)

Plan for our time

1. What gets in the way of employee performance
2. Why this matters
3. What to do about it

RECAP:

Poor management gets in the way of awesome employees.

1. Managers do the wrong role
 - à Managers aren't focused on motivating employees
2. Managers do the wrong tactics
 - à They aren't aware of the real problems to solve
3. Managers do this consistently
 - à And easily fall into old habits

Plan for our time

2. Why this matters
3. What to do about it

My team is everything.

Why motivated employees matter

This s!@# could all be wrong.

THE ONE THING THAT MATTERS TO TEAM PERFORMANCE

Managers.

Specifically, build a habit of having discussions with employees about the things that matter most.

But Jess, we're 46 slides in and you haven't given me a takeaway!

Take all the notes you can.

Then stop.

And ask your team one question.

What can I, our team, or you do to achieve our goals?

Then go do the s!@# you learned about at CS100 that matters to your employees.

OUR NO-BULLSHIT GUIDE TO UNLEASHING YOUR TEAM'S POTENTIAL

Already know why you're struggling?

Tell us what ails your team, and we'll suggest a few remedies. Click on a pain point to get started.

Competing priorities

Disagreement over goals has your team pulling in different directions.

Stagnation

You're working hard... but just not getting anywhere.

Empathy debt

You're only guessing about who your customers are and how to satisfy them.

Poor communication

Team members and stakeholders are left out of the loop.

Indecisiveness

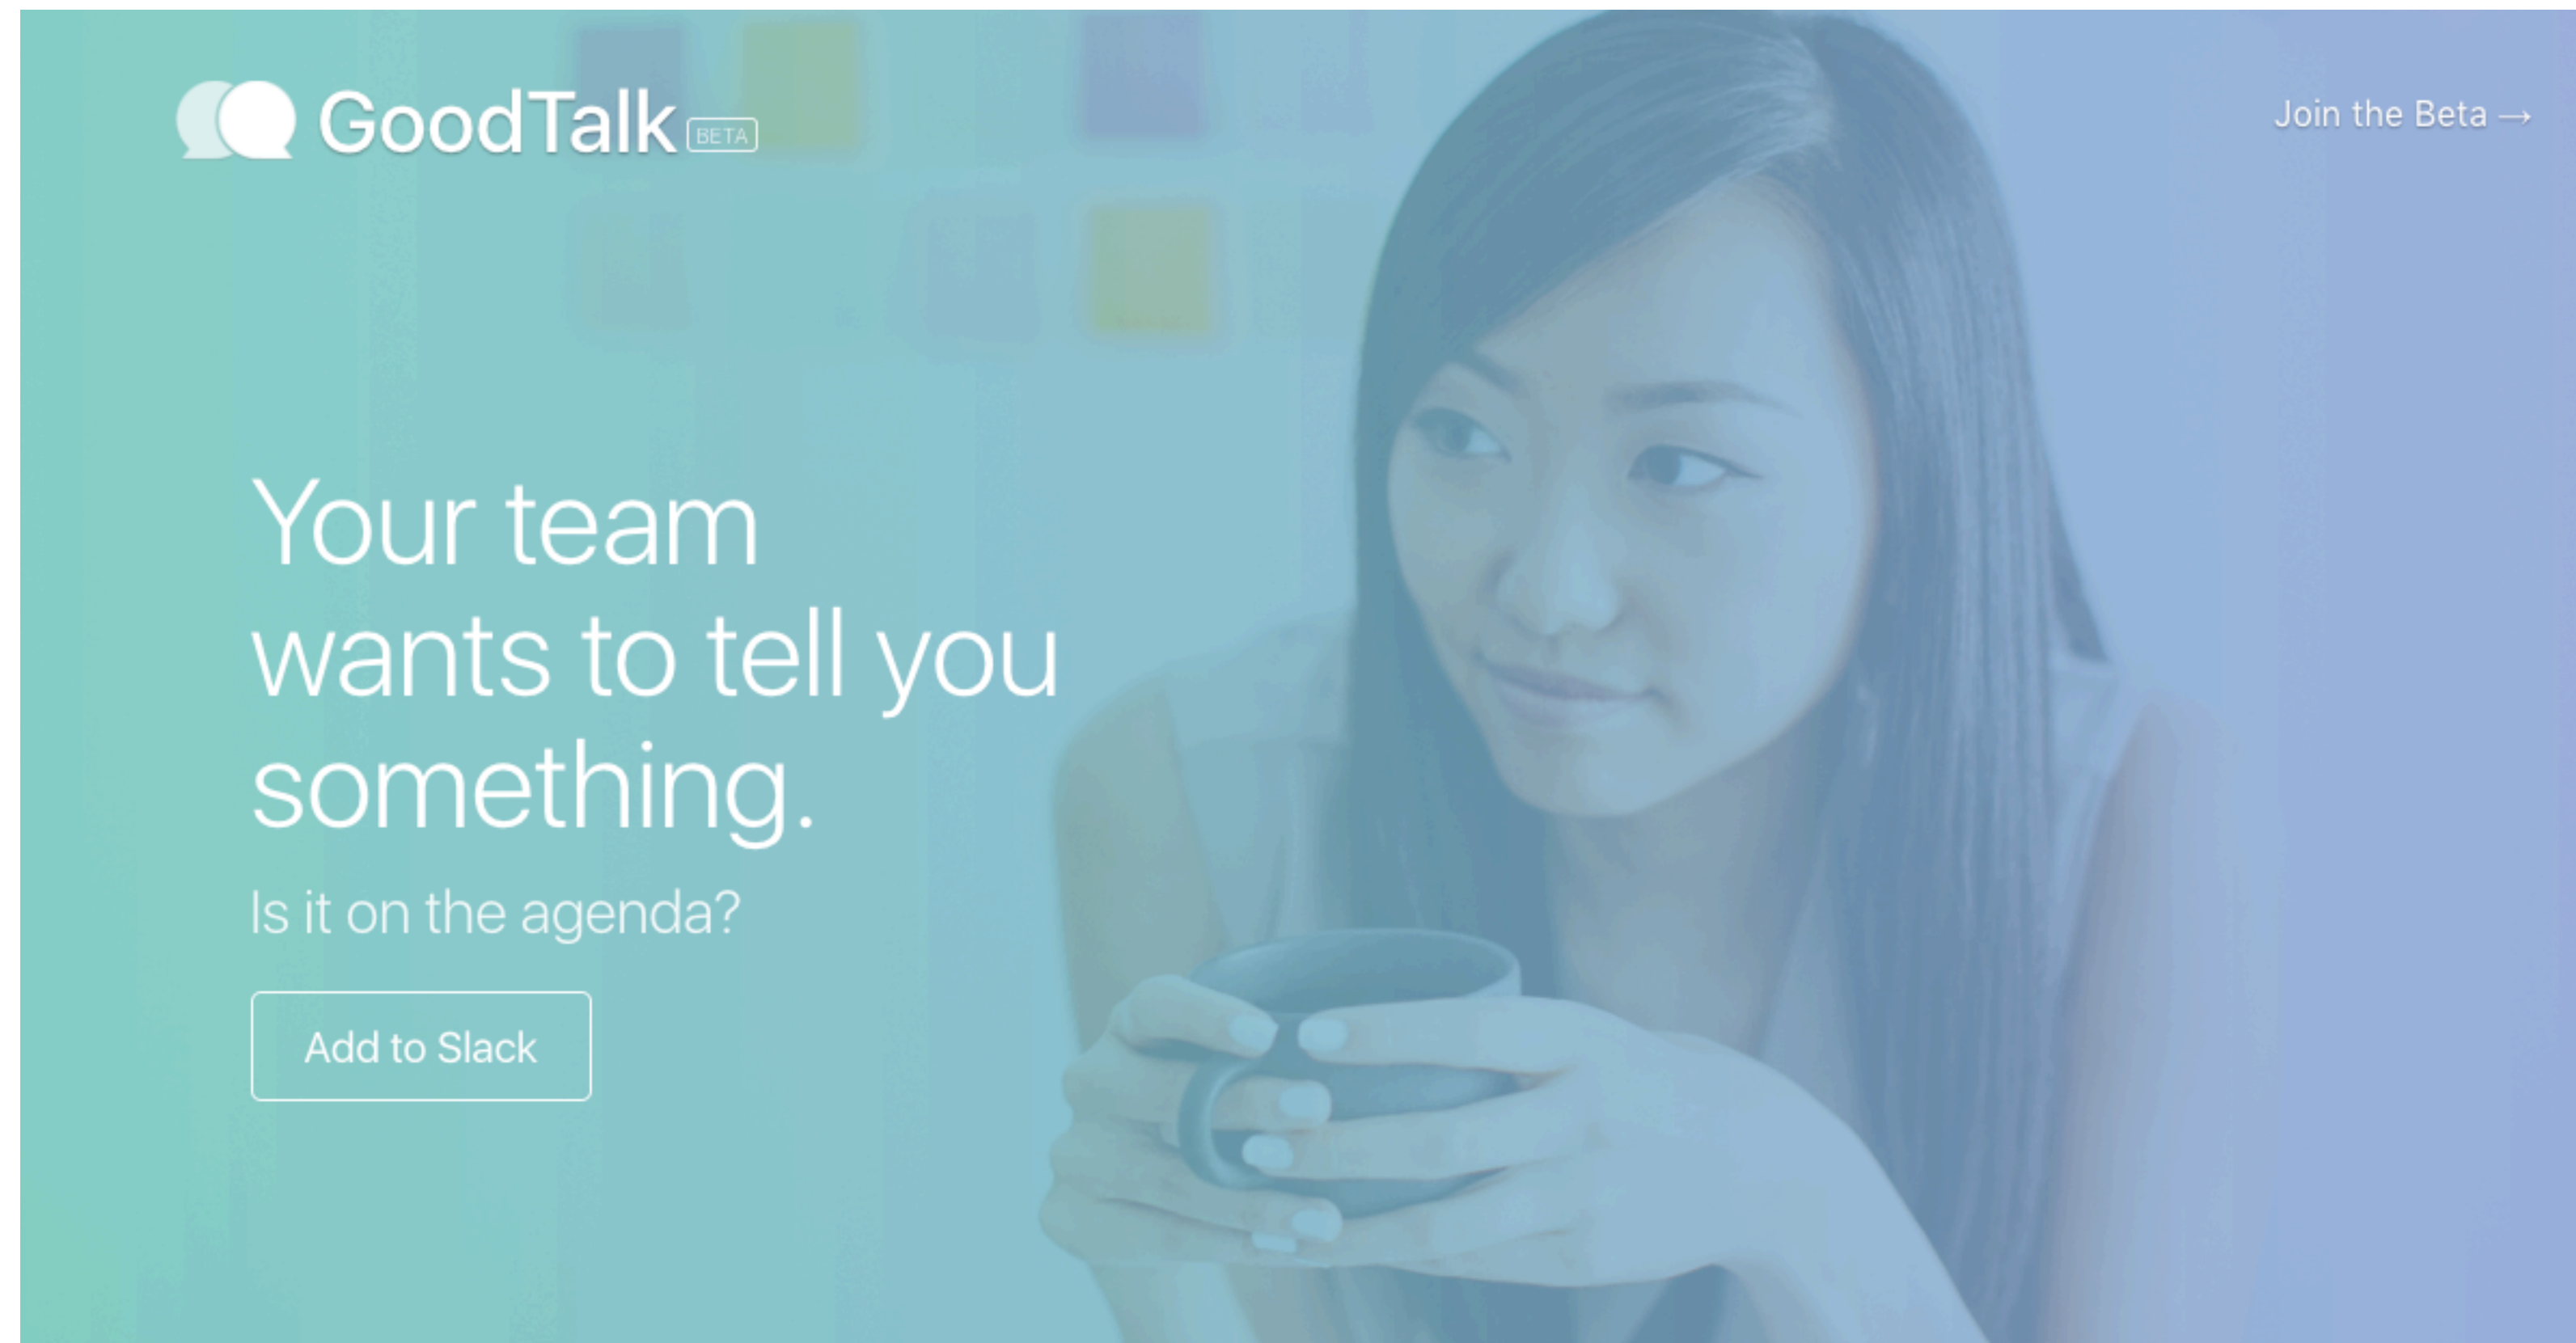

Decisions stall out, or get revisited (again, and again, and again...).

Lack of ownership

Accountability is unclear, driving trust and morale to all-time lows.
